To Benefit The Burn Prevention Network

Dear Car Enthusiast,

It is my pleasure to invite you to take part in the nominating process for the 2012 Concours d'Elegance of the Eastern United States. Your dedication to the preservation of classic and historic vehicles has qualified you to nominate a vehicle for our Concours d'Elegance.

The 2012 Concours d'Elegance will be held on Sunday, June 24, 2012 in the Pocono Mountains at the prestigious Skytop Lodge in Skytop, Pa., a true destination location! Plans already include an exciting weekend of activities for the entire family. Check our website and Facebook page for updates.

The show is national in scope, by invitation only, and will feature vehicles that best exhibit the 2012 theme — “Dynamic Designs Styled for Speed”. Additionally, we will accept prime examples of other entry categories.

William Rothermel will officiate as the Grand Marshal for our narrated parade of the show field and winners ceremony. Arthur B. Berry, III, President of Camelback Mountain Resort is our Concours Chair. J. Micheal Zaia, Manager of Lehigh Valley Rail Management is our returning Concours Chair Emeritus and Robert Hobaugh, Jr., Esq., returns as our Master of Ceremonies.

It is essential that the nominating forms are submitted promptly for proper processing of each show car. Please complete and mail the entry portion of this form with a current photo of the vehicle no later than May 15, 2012. The Car Selection Committee will review nominations each month through May. Our committee members are listed on the back of this brochure. Please feel free to call any of us to answer your questions or assist you in the nominating process.

Thank you for your help in securing a superior field of the highest quality show cars. Please respond at your earliest convenience.

Cordially,

Bob

Bob Dare, Chair
Car Selection Committee

Categories

1. BRASS ERA

This class includes vehicles built prior to January 1, 1916, as recognized by the Horseless Carriage Club of America and reflecting the automobile's earliest years.

2. CLASSIC ERA (1925-1948 Inclusive)

These vehicles include those recognized by the Classic Car Club of America as full classics.

3. SPORTS CARS

This class includes domestic and foreign cars of lightweight body work, designed for speed and handling. An emphasis will be placed on rarity and aesthetics.

4. COMPETITION

This class recognizes all vehicles that have participated in racing and have a documented history of competition.

5. PERFORMANCE CARS (1949 to 1963)

With the arrival in 1949 of America's first modern ohv V-8 engines, these domestic vehicles are the predecessors to the muscle car.

6. MUSCLE CARS (1964 to 1974)

Beginning with the Pontiac's GTO, these domestic vehicles reflect a time when horsepower was king.

7. SPECIALTY VEHICLES

Includes all concept vehicles, prototypes and rare one-of-a-kind vehicles.

8. PRE-WAR COLLECTOR (1916 to 1942)

Significant pre-war vehicles that were built prior to World War II.

9. POST-WAR COLLECTOR (1946 to 1976)

Significant post-war vehicles that were built following World War II.

10. MOTORCYCLES (1974 and earlier)

Innovations in engineering, performance and style; motorcycle milestones.

11. WOOD-BODIED CARS – STEEL-BODIED STATIONWAGONS

What began as the “Depot Hack” evolved into magnificent examples of the coachbuilder's craft and an elegant expression of wealth and good taste among the country club set. These vehicles best typify that era continuing into stationwagons.

12. CONTEMPORARY SUPERCARS

Powerful, exotic, expensive, rare and exclusive, and providing the ultimate motoring experience. This class celebrates these modern automobiles that look great, go fast, drive superbly, and where cost is no object.

13. PRESERVATION – UNRESTORED

A vehicle unrestored and preserved in the condition in which it was delivered from the factory.

14. DEBUT

A vehicle that is making its first appearance at a major national automobile show.

15. ASTON MARTIN

From the pre-war Coventry-Simplex to the post-war double overhead camshaft engines, these British performers have always wrapped power in lovely hand-finished bodies.

16. AUBURN

Well-powered and attractively finished cars from Indiana that “Fortune” magazine once called “the biggest packages in the world for the price.”
